

MERIDIAN FLOW RELEASES THEIR DEBUT ALBUM, COME WHAT MAY-BOLD DIRTY GROOVES & SHARP HOOKS, MODERN ROCK WITH SWAGGER & SNEER"

Powerful • Profound • Passionate

Meridian Flow is a rock band founded by Ian Franklin Wilkerson and Ben Lewis—two longtime musicians and fathers using music as a vessel for freedom, truth, and creative fire. Born from a shared stand for medical liberty in 2020, Meridian Flow channels passion, protest, and purpose into every song.

They fuse rock, soul, and medicine music into their art and creative expression. Their recordings and live performances open hearts, stir emotion, and invite people into something deeper than entertainment. Whether on a stage or in a ceremony, their not just there to play – they're there to shake souls awake and invite greater sovereignty. Their shows are raw, real, and magnetic.

Meridian Flow is what happens when healing, activism and music collide.
